Busboys and Poets Goes East of the River!

Busboys and Poets will “pop up” at Lumen8Anacostia on Saturday, June 22, 2013 at 6pm.

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Once again, as part of Lumen8 Anacostia, Busboys and Poets is excited to host a “pop-up” restaurant in historic Anacostia. Join us for an evening of music, art, culture and of course FOOD on Saturday, June 22, 2013 at 6pm at 2235 Shannon Place SE Washington DC!

Owner Andy Shallal is considering opening a new location in Anacostia and feels that partnering with Lumen8 has been the perfect opportunity to “get our feet wet” and introduce the neighborhood to the Busboys and Poets “tribe”.

We’ll be serving our Vegan or Beef Chilli with Chips for $5 and Vegan Brownies for $3. Also be sure to stop by and contribute your artistic talents to our community mural (in collaboration with Matthew Brooks and NuqtaARTS)!

LUMEN8Anacostia is a free day and night festival featuring art, light, and music in historic Anacostia. The kick-off event from noon to midnight on Saturday, June 22 is followed by six weeks of creative events culminating in a finale event on August 10. This free festival will include performances by visual artists, dancers and actors throughout the day and well in to the night.

Busboys and Poets is a restaurant, bookstore and gathering place where people can discuss issues of social justice and peace.
